One Vote for

Name Address

To receive Grand Opera Tickets offered by the Brooklyn Engla. This Ballot must be cast before August 28.

Voting Contest for Grand Opera Seats. 168 $5 Tickets for 58 Contestants with Most Votes. Address VOTING CONTEST, Brooklyn Daily Eagle. Each coupon properly filled out counts one vote. Voting closes November 1, 1903.

treat was cut off, the negro is said to

After Nddling the body with bullets,

The scene of the race riot is within owned by the martyred President. The ASSAULT IS CHARGED

Nellie McGuire Complainant in

Policeman McAvoy Said He Saw

Three Men Drag Woman

Into Field.

Poriceman McAvoy of the Canarsie Sta-said he saw the attempted assault on the last night about 10:30, when he saw three men dragging a woman into the fields not court as to my good behavior."

"I would like to be sure you are telling the truth and that you did not accost this man," said Magistrate Higginprisoner, but he says you stopped him."

Tuesday and press her complaint, Green-

JEALOUSY CAUSED STABBING.

Over Man Friend, and One

The ill feeling between the two women has gradually grown more bitter, when residence. The first intimation that the colored residents of that vicinity received of the trouble was when they were woman was found unconscious in the hall bleeding from a deep wound in the left

The excitement quickly brought Police-who turned in a call for an ambulance,

The surgeons quickly discovered the dan-removed the injured woman to the hospital. After she had been revived she gave the name of the Sparks woman as her in the basement of the house at 97 Wal-and declared that she had first been at-

POLICE DID NOTHING.

The Sparks woman was finally located ginbotham.

tion, who arrested Greenberg, and who celving threatening leters at short in-the mob commenced to dance around the Dencen at 9 o'clock and afterward talked negro was forced into a corner at the saloon and grocery on the corner of Twelfth and Madison streets. When rewith him over the long-distance tele-

The Governor told me then that the situation at Springfield to-day was well have opened fire, wounding two. Then adjoining, belonging to Joseph Walmer, in hand, but in order to guard against any came the cry. "Get the rope." The were completely wrecked by a bomb exin hand, but in order to guard against any came the cry, further riotous demonstrations he thought negro was caught and dragged to the it well to make an imposing display of street. Here he was beaten and shot five military force," said General Young. "The times, and then a rope was swung around First Illinois Regiment will take a spe- his neck and the other end of the rope family on the second floor of the threecial train in time to arrive at Springfield thrown over the limb of a tree in front story brick beliding in which the exthis evening. We are proceeding on the of the store, With a cry of satisfaction. theory that an ounce of prevention is the negro was swung high off the ground worth a pound of cure. With the arrival He was dead in a few moments, of the First Illinois there will be at Springfield three regiments of the Na-Springfield three regiments of the Natine most commenced to dance around the natiway below. It suddenly dawned divide treasurer for several companies. Services tional Guardsmen, numbering about 2,500 tree. At this point a company of troops him that the sputtering object was a fuse will be held at the residence of his brothmen and officers.'

Mob Lynched Negro, Burned Dwellings and Cut Fire Hose.

Springfield, Ill., August 15-Two white men were killed, one negro was lynched, more than seventy-five persons were injured and two score of houses, mostly occupied by negroes, were burned last night as the result of an attempt by a mob to lynch a negro who had assaulted n white woman. After a night of riot, arson and slaughter, the state troops called out by the governor, succeeded early to-day in restoring a semblance of order and stopping the fire. One thougand milltiamen, including three companies from this city and companies from Bloomington, Decatur, Peoria, Pekin and Pontlac, are patrolling tho streets, and it is believed that further disorder will be prevented. The dead are Charles Hunter, colored; Lewis Jackson, white, 17 year old, James Scott, white, 70 years old.

Assault on Woman Cause of Riot. The rioting was precipitated by an assault committed early yesterday morning by a negro upon Mrs. Mabel Hallam, wife of a street railway conductor. While the woman slept alone in her home on a populous residence street, the man broke into the house, dragged her into the rear yard and assaulted her.

Before noon, George Richardson, the crime. The victim partially identified on a technical charge of vagrancy. the prisoner. Crowds quickly gathered about the jail, but Sheriff Werner's force and the police were able to preserve order until nightfall without difficulty. Shortly after 5 o'clock a successful far from the Canarsle shore. McAvoy ruse was worked by the authorities and heard loud voices, as if the girl were Richardson was spirited away to safety: struggling to get away, and he ran to her With the assembled crowds held at bay by the officers, a false run by the fire assistance. The policeman testified that department temporarily drew the atten- two of the men ran away, while Greention of the crowd, during which time borg continued to try to assault the womthe prisoner was hurried down an ad- an. "When I reached the couple," said joining alley, and at the first corner McAvoy, "I saw Greenberg attempting to was pushed into an automobile owned by throw the woman to the ground." Harry T. Loper, a restaurant keeper, who had been sworn in as a deputy The negro was rushed to a point north costed by the McGuire girl.

of the city, where a Chicago and Alton me and my friends to go with her," said train was stopped and he was put abourd with a heavy guard and conveyed to Bloomington and later to Peorla. Along with Richardson was taken Joe James, another negro prisoner in the thing," she said. "I can prove that my celli, 13 years old, who was asleep in a jall, who is accused of killing Clergy Ballard a state mine inspector, after attempting an assault upon Ballard's daughter.

Ballard went to his daughter's rescue and was stabbed to death. Crowds Besiege Jail.

Immediately after the darkness had gathered crowds assembled in the vicin- ties. When taken to Canarsie station Miss ityof the county jail. The mood of the McGuire did not want to make a charge masses was ugly and appeals by Sheriff against the prisoner, and in the Flatbush Werner were without effect. The sheriff court this morning she said she did not offered to let a committee from the crowd rant to make a complaint when she consearch the jail, assuring them that both fronted Complaint Clerk Regan; but to negroes were gone. "We will all go through," shouted wished to charge Greenberg with assault some one in the crowd, and the cry was taken up by hundreds.

Then some one in the crowd mentioned that Harry Loper, the restaurant man, botham, "and if I were I would gladly had furnished the automobile in which issue a complaint of assault against the the escape of the prisoners had been ef-

A rush was made on Loper's restaurant; five blocks away, and short work | Gin, her boarding mistress, would subwas made of the restaurant. The auto- stantiate her claim as to her good charmobile in which the rescue had been ef- acter . "Well, I will cutertain your complace. It was quickly turned upside down charge of assault," said Magistrate Higand set on fire.

Mob Wrecks Restaurant After Burning Proprietor's Auto.

While the machine blazed frenzied hundreds poured into the cafe, tore fix- counsel. tures and decorations from their places and piled them upon the blaze. Even the sideboards and kitchen were stripped and all the tableware and dishes added

The fire department, which had been called out a half dozen times in efforts to disperse the crowds, again made a run to the restaurant, but was powerless. Every line of hose that was stretched was cut before a stream of water could be forced into it. The local companies of militin consisting of a company of infantry and a troop of cavalry and a Gatling gun section which had been ordered out by Governor Deneen early in the afternoon was busy with the situation in the vicinity old, of 131 Harrison avenue, who was of the jail, and the local authorities had 1 entified by the injured woman. The Mo., his boyhood and early manhood beno men to spare at the scene of the Loper place. Finally, in a desperate effort to restore order, the cavalry troop was dispatched to the restaurant.

Then the rioting broke loose in serious statement that a stilletto was the Shots were fired and the air was weapon used. filled with missiles. Many fell in the melee, and it was here that Louis Johnson met his death. After the men had the Sparks woman discovered that a moved to other scenes Johnson's body negro acquaintance was transfering his was picked up in the rear of Loper's nothing of Loper's place remained for the infuriated crowd a rush o'clock this morning, when the pair met was made for the levee, which is usually in the lower hall of the Hicks woman's populated with negroes. But most of them had disappeared.

Attacks were made upon several store buildings in which it was believed ne- attracted by shrill screams and the Hicks groes had been secreted. Entrance was forced to these places and stocks of merchandise turned topsy turvy in the

Shortly before midnight the meb broke into Fishman's pawn shop and secured a quantity of rifles, shotguns, revolvers and ammunitthe. With these they armed themselves and started to march the streets in absolute control of the situa-

E. W. Chafin Injured in Defending a assailant. Negro.

"Stand back, gentlemen, or I'll shoot everyone of you who touches this man," intocustedy. She was found to be sufthe words of Eugene W. Chaffin, foring from a slight wound in the breast Prohibition condidate for President, who faced a man that had attacked a negro tacked by the Hicks woman and had dewhile Mr. Chafin was delivering a public fended herself. After being identified by 1871 and for twelve years was associated Legis Parchyal, 38 years, 127 Clifton place, and pulled a knife from his porket and slashed several white med. Mr Chaffn was not seriously injured James Scott was atruck by a stray butter and almost instantly killed ...

Negro Lynched by the Mob.

quarter, the mob, which became more drand street and Newtown Creek,

BOMB WRECKED STORES; WORK OF BLACK HAND

Hamilton Avenue Had Great Scare Over Explosion This Morning.

FOLLOWED WRITTEN THREATS

Pacelli, Owner of One of the Wrecked Stores, Appears to Have Been Intended Victim.

186 Hamilton avenue and the cigar store were completely wrecked by a bomb explosion at 6 o'clock this morning. Salvator Vanonio, who lives with his

The fruit store of Leopold Pacelli at plosion took place, was wasing his bands hallway below. It suddenly dawned upon had held the position of secretary and Decatur arrived and commenced attached to something wrapped in a er, Dr. Frederick Tilney, 47 Pierrepont firing, causing the rloters to disperse in half a mile of the old homestead of too late. A second later the building was his wife, Louise H., one sone and three Abraham Lincoln, the only residence ever shaken will a terrific report, and the explosion which followed. The noise roused the neighborhood, and within five minutes a crowd had gathered in front of the store, and policemen from the Hamilton avenue station, two blocks away, were on the scene. Detectives McClumm and Mc-Donald of the local headquarters bureau Donald of the local headquarters bureau tumor. She was the eldest daughter of and Gratano of the Italian staff, who are Martin V. Wood, ex-supervisor of Hemp-Court Against Harry Greenberg assigned to the case, say that it is un- stead and president of the Hempstead doubtedly the work of Black Hand agents. A year ago, Leopold Pacelli, the owner of the store, and who lives in the rear with his wife and five children, received a letter from the Black Hand requesting of Long Island. She leaves, besides her that he give $500 to the society. Pacelli humbhand, a son, Martin V. W. Hall. Funeral arrangements will be announced Charged with assault, on the complaint Battery Park, Manhattan, with detecof Nellie McGuire, aged 21, of tives, but found no one. About a week Rockaway avenue and Canarsie land, later he received another letter, which Rockaway. Harry Greenberg, aged 26, of threatened to blow his whole family and 1373 East New York avenue, was ar- his store to pieces if the writers were raigned in the Flatbush Couprt to-day, not in receipt of the $500 by a designated tervals. It is said that he gave the society $40 young negro, was arrested, charged with young woman, also arrested Miss McGuire and $20 at different times,, but he denies it. At last the leters stopped, and Pas McAvoy said he was patroling his beat | celli heard nothing outil the affair of this morning.

time. He did not answer, but kept re-

Pacelli says that when he went to market at 4 e'clock this morning, he saw a of the Black Hand, standing near the store talking to a neighbor. The neigh-bor, whose name is Dominick Judice, with a store just below Pacelli's, denies it said that if his picture were shown to etery. The deceased, who was born in him in the Rogues' Gallery he could pick Germany, June 12, 1835, had been a restituout in a minute. The detectives think dent of Brooklyn for nearly fifty years. In his own defense Greenberg said he was with friends visiting at Canarsie and that Pacelli knows all about the whole He served as a volunteer soldier in the was on his way home when he was ac-costed by the McGuire girl. "She asked ing the vengeance of the Black Hand. of New York Volunteers, and was a Greenberg, "and we accepted her invita- hallway of the building, and so the tion just before the policeman came damage was confined to walls and cellalong." This was stoutly denied by the ings, and the merchandise of both stores, young woman. "I never didy such a the only person injured being Carl Pa-character is above such a reproach. I room..in the rear of the hall. He was live with Mr. and Mrs. McGinn at the adcut above the eye by a pelce of flying dress I gave, and they can inform the plaster. The force of the explosion broke a hole in the wall and scattered cigars McAvoy declared to Magistrate Higginand cigarettes all over the cigar store botham, that the girl had suffered in no adjoining. serious way from the attack of the young Pacelli places the damage at $500, but man, except that shee claimed she was waylaid by him and subjected to indignisays that it is covered by accident insurance. The building is owned by Eugeneo Gentile of 2T-Carroll street, and leased by Amelia Carbone of 212 Hamilton avenue, who rents the store to Pa-

OBITUARY.

J. W. A. MacDonald.

J. W. A. MacDonald, who modeled the bust of Washington Irving in Prospect Park and who for a decade had been Again Miss McGuire, who is a small, delicate woman, declared that Mrs. Mc- known as "America's oldest sculptor," died of the effects of paralysis in The Arlington Inn, South Broadway, Yonkers, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in his fected had been left in front of the plaint against this man and hear a eighty-fourth year. Mr. MacDonald, born of Scottish parents in Steubenville, O., early developed a talent for art and Miss McGuire says her parents are to avoid the to him unattractive trade of dead. She promised to appear next blacksmithing planned for him by his father, he ran away from home at the age of seventeen and eleven years later berg was paroled, in the custody of his was partner in a book publishing con-cern in St. Louis. He retired from active business at thirty to devote him-self to art. Among others of his carly works was a bust of Thomas H. Benton, United States Senator from Mis-Two Colored Women Have Dispute sourl, the first model of sculpture art cut west of the Mississippi. Mr. MacDonald came to New York after the Civil War.

Samuel Elisha Belcher. Samuel · Elisha. Belcher, of American bing this morning which may result in Revolutionary and Huguenot stock and a the death of Pearl Hicks, a negress, 22 member of Plymouth Church from 1853 years old, who lives at 65 Walton street, to 1884, died at the advanced age of 84, The stabbing, it is alleged, was done by at the home of his son-in-law, W: another negress, Daisy Sparks, 35 years Bullard, in Bridgeport, Conn., on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Belcher was born in Harmony Mission Station, Bates County, nature of the wound, which is in the ing spent in Sing Sing, N. Y., where he chest, and has probably pactured the was educated at the Mount St. Pleasant left lung, bears out the Hicks woman's Academy of that place. He was connected with the corps of engineers of the old Croton Aqueduct and later taught district schools in Chappaqua and Yorktown N. Y. In 1841 his business career began as a clerk in the Wall street district and later he engaged in the wholesale grocery, drug and hardware business until affections from her to the Hicks woman, 1859, when he became secretary of the Jefferson Insurance Company of New eno outbreaks occurred until about 8 York, of which he was president fromto 1894f Mr. Belcher moved to Brooklyn in 1852 and, beside being a member and officer of Plymouth Church for the period of thirty years, he was very active in politics, being an enthusiastic Whig and Republican. In addition he was a charter member of the New England Society of Brooklyn and a memchest, together with a gash on the left tier of the War Fund committee of those days, assisting materially in the raising of a regiment of volunteers. The late Dr. man Bryan of the Lee avenue station, William Nathan Belcher of Brooklyn was one of two children whose death he was called upon to mourn in the last year gerous character of the chest wound and of his life. The remains of Mr. Beicher were buried in Ossining, N. Y. Gordon Macdonald .

Gordon Macdonald, of the banking firm of Speyer & Co., of Manhattan, died yesterday at the age of 52 at Gananoque, Ontario, his birthplace, whither he had gone in search of health after a valu trip abroad for the same purpose. Mr. Macdonald, who was educated in Toronto and Kingston, Ont .. came to New York in last night.

For his set Chaffa was struck on the left side of the face with X bricklat hurled by a member of the meb.

During the fight that followed the face with X bricklat by Magistrate Higher than fight the result of the Hicks woman's injuries.

What Mattland, Phelps & Co., after which with Mattland, Phelps & Co., after which Mattland, Phelps & Co Co., becoming a member of the Stock Exchange. The deceased banker was identified with several international finan-Some time ago it was reported to the which had to do with the flotation of police of the Stagz street station that $35,000,000 of Cuban bonds, all of which were taken by his firm. While advising member of the Union, Metropolitan, Downtown, Raquet and Tennis and Whip-pany River Country clubs. His widow, Emilie Iselin, whom he married in 1882, and two sons survive him.

Henry Brunjes. .

Henry Brunjes of 43 Linden street, a resident of the Bushwick section for the past thirty-five years, died of a complication of diseases including diabetes and heart trouble, following an illness of seven months, yesterday. Mr. Brunjes was born in Germany 57 years ago, lived in Brooklyn for forty-three years and was active in the wholesale grocery busines The deceased was a member of the Ger man Lutheran Church, at Palmetto street and Knickerbocker avenue; the Williamsburg Plattdeutscher Club; Fortuna Lodge, O. M. P.; Knights of Maccabees, North Side Tent, and was identified with the German Hospital Society. The widow, Clara Brunjes: three daughters, Miss Josephine H. Brunjes and Mrs. S. C. Leonard of Brooklyn and Mrs. A. Semar of Detroit, Mich., and one son, Henry P Brunjes, of Brooklyn, survive him. funeral services will be held at his late residence to-morrow evening, and inter-ment will be in the Lutheran Cemetery.

Thomas Joseph Tilney. Thomas Joseph Tilney, of 272 Hicks treet, a member of the Crescent Athetle Club and of Plymouth Church, died of typhold pneumonia, after an illness of two weeks, yesterday. Mr. Tilney was in his 30th year and had lived all his life plosion took place, was wasing his hands in Brooklyn, the place of his birth. For at a sluk at the head of the stairs when a number of years he had been engaged he noticed something sputtering in the in the brokerage and mining business and newspaper. He ran to get a broom to street, at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon, sweep it out into the street, but he was The surviving members of the family are wood Cometery.

Mrs. William S. Hall. Jeannette, wife of William S. Hall, town treasurer of Freeport and cashler of the Freeport Bank, died early this morning at the Brooklyn Hospital, where she had undergone an operation for a Bank. She was born near Norwood, and esteem by a large circle of friends in Hempstead, Freeport, and other sections

John H. Hennesy. John H. Hennesy of 447 East Ninth street, Flatbush, died in the Jewish Hosoital in this borough, on Wednesday, following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Hennesy was 43 years old and for several years had been identified with the Collies publications. A widow and two daughters survive him. Deceased was a member of Manitou Court, Order of Amaranth, and United States Lodge, F. and A. M. Funeral services were held last night, the Rev. Dr. Osborne officiating.

William Berlin, an old Bushwick district resident, who was retired from the grocery business which he had conducted on Cooper street, died on Thursday at his residence, 188 Schaefer street, from the effects of the heat. Funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon, with Pacelli first told the detectives that he the Rev. Dr. Schwartz officiating, and could not recognize the man, but later the interment will be in Evergreens Cem-A. R. He leaves three sons, Frederick, Henry and William, and two daughters, Christine and Mrs. Henry Dahnken.

J. Ira Brown, (Special to the Eagle.) Riverhead, L. I., August 15-The funeral of J. Ira Brown of this place, a brother of Charles Brown of Brooklyn, was, conducted yesterday by the Revs Chalmers and Thorpe. Mr. Brown was one of the elderly and esteemed citizens of this place and a man who had a good record in the Civil War. He was a member of Company H, Fifth New York Heavy Artillery, and participated in much hard fighting during the year 1864, being in the engagements at Cedar Creek, Charles Town, Halltown; Berryville Opequam, Fisher's Hill and again at Cedar Creek, where the second engagement lasted six days. At this occasion he was captured and sent to Libby prison, remaining there for about six months, during the terrible winter weather, and his release was finally secured the next February. Mr. Brown was upward of 77 years of age and is survived by his widow and six daughters. Israel Youngs. (Special to the Eagle.) Cedarburst, L. I., August 15-Word was eccived here yesterday of the death at fight for the convention. There were the Soldiers Home in Bath, N. Y., on no contests for the officers in the grand Sunday, of Israel Youngs, a former rest- aerie and the ticket went through withdent of this place, who for the last five out a hitch. years had been an inmate of the home. Deceased was 85 years old and was a veteran of the Civil War, having gone to the front with Company A, Fifteenth Regiment, Engineer Corps. Death was due to pneumonia.

Porter Sheldon. Jamestown, N. Y., August 15-Porter Sheldon died suddenly at his home in this city to-day, aged 76 years. He was member of Congress from the then structed, Thirty-fourth New York District in 1868. and was a member of the Illionis Constitutional Convention in 1861.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Issued in Brooklyn for Twenty-four Hours Ended at Noon To-day. seorgo B. Stayley, 70 years, 31 Cambridge place, and Ada I. Durland, 35 years, 235 etras Karalawiczus, 30 years, 151 Hope st, and Ona Titanta, 21 years, 151 Hope st. Teofi Cznhakonski, 27 years, 677 Third av. and Zofia Fabiszewska, 19 years, 144 Twentieth ouls Benjamin, 24 years, 23 Sutter av. and Sarah Sussman, 22 years, 29 Sutter av. Soloman Rium, 22 years, 343 Thatford av, and Lena Silver, 21 years, 416 Chester st.

Thomas M. Shea, 26 years, 567 Fifty-sixth st, and Mary K. Ryan, 26 years, 570 Ovingion Albert Schwertfeger, 21 years, 214 Wyckoff av. and Adrienna Autenreith, 19 years 214 Wyck-off av. George W. Williamsen, 26 years, 4 Willow st, and Maria Boland, 25 years, 271 Haltic st.

Henry Hinrichs, 22 years, 529 Grand st, and Marie Orazen, 21 years, 217 Moore st. John Emge. 27 years, 174 East Eighty-eighth Manhattan, and Marie Kessener, 20 years, 552 Fourth st. Phethert F. Taylor., 27 years, 218 Classon av., and Madeline Stegner, 13 years, 1304 Gates

nvenue

Richard E. Goether, 26 years, Evergreen, Queens Borough, and Eleanor Kimpel, 24 years, 131 Heyward at. Gustav A. Willumsen, 24 years, 205 Prospect av. and Amelia M. Schmagner, 23 years, 1105 Rockaway av. ltarry Federman, 21 years, $ Selgel at, a Lillian Karolovitch, 18 years, 8 Selgel at.

Herbert Martin, 27 years, 81 Berry st, and Loretta O'Nell, 21 years, 233 Union av. Maurice P. Daly, 28 years, Ninety-fifth at and Marine av. and Emma T. Powell, 18 years, Ninety-fifth at and Marine av. Thomas A. Batka, 20 years, 538 Lorimer st., and Sarah McGowan, 24 years, 78 Berry st.

Julius Knudsen, 31 years, 635 Henry st, and Margaret Olson, 21 years, 685 Henry st, Edward Wise, 24 years, 240 Leonard st. and Josephine Smith, 24 years, 556 Grand st.

YOUTH ADMITS GUILT.

Woman Has Corso Arrested for this borough, Breaking Into Her Apartment

In response to a complaint by Mrs. barrels had been raissing mysteriously President Palmer and the Cuban treasury Leonora Giordano of 563 Liberty ave-After burning many houses in the house from the Morgan Cooperage Company at official he spent several months in nuc. Gaspar Corse, 16 years old, of 114 narier, the mob, which became more (frand street and Newtown Creek. Havana, It was to Mr. Macdonald that Central avenue, was arrested by Officer desparate as the night passed, health for strangers. This morning one instance of the employes saw-two men rolling harman in the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty of the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty of a stroke of heart fail
The employes were also cautioned to the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty in the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty in the formulating of the formulating of the formulating of the formulating of the formulating condition.

The employes were also cautioned to the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty in the formulating of the formulating of the formulating of the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty in the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty in the formulating of the formulating of the plan of govern-like suddenty in the formulating of th

TRAINS KILL TWO MEN IN MANHATTAN SUBWAY

Unidentified Workingman Mangled by Express at Brooklyn Bridge Station.

HAD A TICKET FOR PATERSON.

Man, Believed to Be Edward J. Mahar, Lost His Life While Trying to Beat His Fare.

Two men were killed, by trains in the danhattan subway to-day.

William Peterson, of 79 Sands street Brooklyn, standing on the uptown platform of the Manhattan subway, at the Brooklyn Bridge, at 9:30 o'clock this morning, saw a poorly dressed workingman ambling across the northbound express tracks toward the southbound platform on the express side. Peterson heard the rumble of an insouthbound express, shouted in horror to the track crosser to jump for his life. Just as the man turned, a southbound Broadway express train crumpled him under its wheels. The train was in charge of Arthur Brown, motorman, of 457 West One Hundred and Sixty-fourth street, who applied the emergency brake, stopping the train balf way down the platform, but not before the man who had been hit, had been rolled and twisted back beneath the second car. The body was dragged for some twenty feet.

The man was taken from under the wheels and carried over to the north end of the northbound platform, within a few had resided in Freeport for a score of feet of where he must have stepped from years. Mrs. Hall was held in marked it upon his death's errand. His loft legwas cut off at the thigh, and his body into the alley, but landed on the roof Hand affirs of this kind, I am very well was terribly crushed, cut and bruised. After a few gasps he died, without regaining consciousness. The only mark of identification found spon the body was a railroad ticket to Paterson, N. J. The body was that of a man 26 years of age, about five feet seven inches in height, dark hair, rather thin teatures, smooth shaven, and a dark complexion. He wore a light shirt, open at the throat, with no collar or scart, and dark coat and trousers and shoes of In trying to evade a ticket chopper after he had failed to put a ticket in the box at the downtown subway station at Worth street, Manhattan, a man, be-lieved to be Edward J. Mahar, was killed the Hudson Street Hospital shortly after another minister. being admitted. James Devine of 131 Douglass street, Worth street station, says Mahar walked past him without buying a ticket and hurrled past the ticket chopper without putting a ticket in the box. The man walked up to the end of the after him Mahar jumped down upon the tracks, and; Jumping over the third rail, started to run north on the downtown express tracks. The ticket chopper, H. R. Holms, follower Mahar until he lost Later, Holms and Devine started W lanterns to look for Mahar. Near Franklin street they found his body, horribly crushed. The man had started to run on the northbound tracks and was struck by a train.

EAGLES CHOOSE OFFICERS.

Philadelphian Chosen to Be Grand Worthy President.

Seattle, August 15-At the meeting of following officers were elected: Grand worthy president, Bernard J. Monaghan, Philadelphia; grand worthy vice president, Frank E. Hering, South Bend, Ind.; grand worthy chaplain, John Cline, Cleveland; grand worthy sec-Conrad H. Mahn, Milwaukee; grand worthy treasurer, Finley McRae Helena; grand worthy conductor. Charles McDonald, Buffalo; grand inside guard, Robert L. Armstrong, Fort Worth; grand trustees, Martin J. Gray, New Haven; William T. Garland, Boston; Henry J. Lee, Seattle; W. C. McKinney, Saginaw. Saratoga Springs, N. Y., put up a hard

OBITUARY NOTES.

Relatives of the late Rear Admiral Cogswell, U. S. N., whose death occurred in Florida on Tuesday, have requested Lieutenant General Arthur McArthur, U. S. A., to make arrange-ments for the funeral to be held in Mil-waukee. It is said that an experience the deceased admiral had with a shipwrecked crew formed the ground work upon which one of Robert Louis Stevenson's stories was con-

The very unusual occurrence of a patient and nurse being buried together was recorded at Hempstead, L. I., yesterday, when double funeral services were held for Emeline Seaming and her niece. Mrs. Jane Frost, at the home of Charles Cornwall of Ocean Side. The two women had lived alone together and Airs Frost, who had nursed her aunt, died the night after the aged patient had passed away, Mrs. Seaman was 71 years old, was 44 years old. Henry Abrahams, formerly a resident of this hattan, where funeral services were held yesterday. A widow, two sons and three daughter sare the surviving members of the fain-ily. Mr. Abrahams was a member of the Kalisher Benefit Society and Knights of the troubles of her husband, but she did Tent and Maccabees, No. 49. Augusta Martin, wife of Thomas B. Martin, veteran of the Civil War, died yesterday, the was a native of Brooklyn and, beside her husband, one son survives her. The funeral services will be held at her late-residence, 418 Fark place, to-morrow afternoon. Edgar J. Lee of 63 Downing street, a native of Montgomery, Ala., and a resident of Brooking for the past seventeen years, died of apoplexy, yesterday. Mr. Lee was connected with Wilkinson Bros., paper manufacturers, and was a member of 8t, James P. E. Church, lits widow, Jane Pomercy Lee, four some and four daughters survive him. Funeral services will be held between 2 and 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and interment will take place.

SIMPLE SERVICE OVER BIER.

at Troy, Pa. George Schneider for many years in the mills business in the Bushwick district, died on Thursday of a complication of aliments after an illness of two months at his home at 1507 Broadway. He was born in Manhattan in 1965 and had lived in Brooklyn for twenty-three years. He is survived by his widow. Lettila, and five sons. He will be buried in Frederick Kroemer of 211 Division Avenue

Twelfth and Madison streets.

The place of the forty-seventh Registrate High and two men were arrested.

With the construction of railroads. The of various descriptions.

The place of the forty-seventh Registrate High and two men were arrested.

The place of the forty-seventh Registrate High and two men were arrested.

The place of the forty-seventh Registrate High and two men were arrested.

Wall the construction of the time of his best of health lines he had been in the best of health lines he had been in the best of health lines he had been in the best of health lines he had been in the best of health lines he had been in the best of health lines he had been in the best of health lines he had been in the best of which the wishers are with the construction of railroads. The of various descriptions.

The place of the forty-seventh Registrate Hylan, which is morther two sheets of the post of the first constitution of tailroads. The of various descriptions.

The place of the forty-seventh Registrate Hylan, which is morther two sheets of the post of the first constitution.

The place of the forty-seventh Registrate Hylan, which is morther two sheets of the post of the first received. The place of the beaver as wife the place of the forty-seventh Registrate Hylan, which is morther two sheets of the forty-seventh Registrate Hylan, which is morther two sheets of the forty-seventh Registrate Hylan,

JUMPED FLOOD'S ALLEY

Kentucky Man Broke Both Ankles in Queer Stunt.

Alcoholism, Says Surgeon; Not So, Says Marks, but an Entirely Different Reason,

Charles J. Marks jumped across Flood' alley, from the roof of one hullding to th eroof o fanother, this morning, and native of Covington, Ky., but had been staying at the lodging house at 15 Myrtle avenue. That is on one side of Flood's Get After the Italian Blackmailers alley. No. F Myrtle avenue, which is occupied by a pawnbroker, is on the other side. Whisky was at the bottom of the whole affair, according to Ambulance Surgeon Morgenthaler of the Brooklyn Hospital, for the doctor declared that the sufferer was a victim of Marks does not think so. He felt very sure, and he told the police so, that a man whose name he gave to the authorities, but who is not within 1,000 miles of Brooklyn, had been chasing him at 6 its hand and a determination to throw Mr. Marks into the East River. Marks is still very sure of that. man almost got into the bunk where he was sleeping this morning, and of course will have the murder cleared up.

Mr. Marks got out. He could hear the With Antonio D Motto, the ha stranger's muttered threats, he says,

Mr. Marks did not want to get into his clutches, and so he fled to the roof of the lodging house. He could still hear he man at his heels, for his voice was is much space as possible between him and the gentleman with the revolver and down from the roof into Flood's alley, and the distance over to the pawnbrokr's did not seem to be so great.

Mr. Marks gathered himself up, as one would, for the jump, and, like Darius Green of early aeroplane fame, leaped his heals, he thought. He did not fall lan bureau has with Mafia or Black of No. 9, with his ankles fractured.

IRA D. SANKEY'S FUNERAL

Takes Place at 4 o'Clock To-day in Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Locke of the Hanson Place M. several of them were interested in this morning by a northbound express Rev. Dr. Locke of the Hanson Place M. train near Franklin street. He died at E. Church. Dr. Locke will be assisted by The funeral, in a way, will follow closely the religious preferences of the Brooklyn, ticket agent at the downtown great singer and evangelist, combining as Until a few years ago Hr. Sankey wasa Methodist, but suddenly he left that the murder." church and joined the Presbyterian church. Inspector (platform, and when the chopper started He explained at the time that it was not because he had quarreled with the was purely one of convenience, as he lived nearer a Presbyterian church than a Methodist church. He said the slight Italians, denominational difference was not to be the Grand Aerie of the Eagles last night M ly Come Here Again, but Will See to It That He Deals With a Different Class of People.

FARMAN SAILS, DISGUSTED

Blames His Financial Backers for Failure in America.

acroplane expert, who with his life, is returning to Paris. Farman was glad to get away, though expressing the opinion that later on he miight revisit America under more favorable circumstances. When asked what he had to say about his experience in America Farman said:

York, as a class, I have no complaint to make. I was treated courteously and it was very unfortunate that the financial end of the venture turned out as it did. I bear no ill will to the American people. I like the people of New York, but when I come again to America I will see to it that I shall have made arrange ple than the ones with whom'I had dealings on this trip. I was able and willing to do my share of the contract, but it appears that the other parties could not do theirs. My machine is on another boat aid I will be glad to get back home. Later I may come to America again. Mme. Farman did not take things so coolly. She was highly indignant, and in Charleston ... true French style, with shrugs of her

Reuben Fax, a well known character actor, died suddenly of heart disease in the Times Square Hotel, Manhattan, yesterday, on the eve of a rehearsal in a new play written by David Belasco, of whom the deceased was a distant relative. Last season, Mr. Fax appeared with David Warfield in the "Music Master." His principal parts were Posty in Stoddard's "Beside the Bonny Briar Bush." and Colonel Starbottle in "Salomy Jane." He was 44 years old. shoulders, said:
"I have had enough of New York and chine. It is abominable!"

Afterwards, just before the liner sailed. borough, and aged 76, died Wednesday at his late home, 161 East Sixty-third street, Manground that she had been so wrought up not withdraw the statement of her opinion of New York City as a city.

Farman some time between midnight seroplaneand dawn yesterday spirited his aeroplane away from Brighton Beach and placed it beyond the reach of credifors.

SIMPLE SERVICE OVER BIER.

Funeral of Gen. Meserole Held This Afternoon in Lafayotte Ave. Church. The funeral of General Jeremiah V. Meserole was held at 2:30 this afternoon Church, at Lafayette avenue and South died Wednesday of diabetes at his home. He was born in Germany, March 1, 1839 and Oxford street. The services were the rixteen years ago telired from the lakery simplest possible at the request of Gen- St. Louis, from Southampton, business, which he computed in Manhattan. He was a member of the Emmanual Lutheran eral Meserole, made just before his Caledonia, from Glasgow (sighted).

Adolphina, Emma, Minnie and Mrs. Theolore Schektra.

Joseph McGaffrey died Thursday of cirrholiz of the liver at his residence, 185 Lee avenue. He had been alling seven months. He retired from the liquer business at dedicted avenue and Lynch street because of sickness. nue and Lynch street because of sickness had requested, and delivered a brief the was born in the Twenty-first Ward of culogy. Another brief address was made this borough, May 1, 1832, his parents being by the Rev. Mr. Leach, pastor of the Patrick and Lettia McCaffrey. He had at Far Rockaway church which General of Transfiguration Roman Catholic Church, McSerole used to attend in the summer. He is survived by a son Joseph; a brother, James, and two daughters, Margaret and Trustees of the Lafayette Avenue Church, Market and Lafayette Avenue Church, by the officers of the Williamsburg Sav-Henry Mass, a butcher at 1195 Nortrand ave. ings Bank, which was headed by General

MURDERER OF BARILLO MAY SOON BE CAUGHT!

Police Are Making Arrests and Believe They Will Quickly Clear the Msyter.y

fractured both of his ankles. The man 's O'REILLY GIVES A WARNING.

Systematically, He Says, Before They Attack Americans,

The police of the Flatbush station have succeeded in learning definitely where Pietro . Barillo, who was murdered on! Lincoln road, near Nostrand avenue, Wednesday night, had been making his home. He roomed with Paul Coterondi, a cousin, at 75 Pacific street. From that house last night the wake over the remains of the murdered man was held, o'clock this morning, with a revolver in and the funeral took place to-day. The_ police seem to think they have the case'. pretty well in hand, and that, with the arrest of another man named Brund, they With Antonio D Motto, the bartender's for Frederick Gracioni of 525 Lincoln road, arrested, charged with the murder, and Fortunato Gratiano and Glovanni Comi, also in jail on suspicion, the police, just as plain as could be. Mr. Marks under Captain Dulfer, are confident, with was naturally frantic and wanted to put the assistance of several witnesses whomthe assistance of several witnesses whomthey have in mind, that the murder will the homicidal determination. He looked be completely sifted and the guilty person brought to justice.

"My men have been working on the case very intelligently," said Captain Dulfer to-day, "and I think their work" will be crowned with success. Taking off. The imaginary man was almost at into consideration the difficulty the Italpleased with the work of Detectives Elwood and Collins.'

Inspector Miles O'Reilly also is of the opinion that the murder will be sifted out, and that, through the instrumentality of young De Moto, the guilty party will be brough to bay. "The police have an important arrest in De Motto, and the solution of the whole case," said the inspector to-day. "The evidence is almost The funeral of Ira D. Sankey will be in our hands now. Here we have a gang held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the of Italians, who go to a saloon under suspicion by the police. They talk over The services will be conducted by the the shares of a certain proceeding that "They leave this saloon and go into the street. Barillo had a bicycle with him. They go into the street, still talking and arguing, and the argumentative Barillo incites the envy of the other former friends. They challenge him. He it will features of two denominations. attempts to show fight, and then the murder occurrs. That's my version of Inspector O'Rellly has other opinions which he offered for print. One of them and more convictions if the Police De partment were granted enough money to organize a detective force of educated "Employ these men, with large sal-while," said the inspector. . "Send them labor-with shovel and ax-and get after the leaders and organizers of these internal societies that they run in this country These lazy Italians come here and contheir blackmailing organizations which they originated in Italy and kill the wealthy Italians for refusing to give up their hard carned money. Sooner or later we will have them attacking the Americans and all nationalities unless we begin to fight them. There is only one way to fight them, and that is to go among them, live with them, drink with them, and sleep with them. In this way the Italian detectives could unravel the secrecies of their band, inform anginst them, and prevent murder. With sub-On the American Line steamship New stantial proof they could jail the black-York, which sailed from her pier in Man- mallers and create a double benefit. In hattan to-day, were Henri Farman, the only one way can this be done, and that is to give the police commissioner suffi-cient money."

WEATHER FORECAST.

Persons desiring information concerning the "Of the Americans I have met in New weather, temperature or other information can secure it by using telephone No. 571 Main, from 8 A.M. to 6 P.M. week days, Nights and > Indications Until 8 P.M. To-morrow Washington, August 15-For Eastern New York: Showers late to-night and on Sunday; cooler; light to fersh north to northeast winds Local Probabilities.

Generally fair and cooler to-night; Sunday, howers and cooler; light to fresh north to Sundays, 6200 Main.

ortheast winds. pera- cipita-.00 Naw Orleans 82 60 Cincinnati... 78 .00 St. Louis ... 78 .00 Chicago ... 70 .00 Duluth ... 54 .00 San Franco 52 New Orleans: Lowest Boston Buffalo Manhattan .. Philadelphia Highest, 82, at New Orleans; lowest, 62, at

*T indicates amount too small to measure OFFICIAL TEMPERATURE. FRIDAY, AUGUST 14.

83 12 (Midnight) SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, Average temperature a year ago to-day, 71.

HIGH WATER. Time High Time High Rice Fall H.M. Feet H.M. Feet H.M. Feet

SUN RISES AND SETS. August 15. August 46. Risc. 5:06 Sets. 6:51 Riscs. 5:07 Sets. 6:53

SHIP NEWS. Arrived at New York To-day.

La Lorraine, from Havre. Arable, from Liverpool. Arapahoe, from Charlestons. Manna Hata, from Baltimore Volturno, from Hamburg, Yale, from Boston. Lucania, from Liverpool

Kalserin Auguste Victoria, from Hamburg Comerie from Rosario. Sailed From Foreign Ports To-day

Arrived at Foreign Ports To-day.

INDEX OF REGULAR FEATURES.

Classification Page Classification Page

Books 6 Real Est. Records. .*8