AERIAL AFFAIRS UP IN THE AIR.

Farman's Backers Refuse to Come to Time.

HAVE SPENT ALL THEIR MONEY

Aeronaut, Hired by Syndicate to Give Exhibitions Here, Makes Demand For Week's Salary, Which Is Not Forthcoming, Whereupon Farman Considered Contract Broken—Had Guarantee of Ninety Days, For Which He Was to Receive $24,600—Aeroplane May Be Sold to Joe Tracy, the Automobile Racer.

New York, Aug. 10.—The financial backing of Henry Farman's aeroplane struck the earth with a thud, though the machine itself flew merrily enough at the Brighton Beach race track, when it developed that the syndicate which was to back Farman for a tour of the country had spent all of its money and its individual members had refused to put up any more. According to one of the two members of the syndicate who remained in New York, one of the others had done a little evolution of his own in the homeward direction of St. Louis. Business at the Brighton track has been bad, he said, and the weather had been unfavorable for flights on two days.

It was said that of the $24,600 which Farman was to receive for a period of ninety days in this country only about $7,500 had been paid to him.
There is due him a week's salary of $1,680, $800 extra for flights and $800 for expenses. Mr. Farman made a formal demand on the syndicate for this sum and when the syndicate failed

HENRI FARMAN, WITH HIS AEROPLANE.

to pay said he considered it had broken his contract with him. He was unwilling to say what his plans were for the future.

"I am waiting to see what the company proposes," he said.

Tells of Aerial Troubles.

T. B. MacMechen, the only member of the original St. Louis group remaining in the city and the secretary of the Aeroplane Company of New York, under which title the syndicate had incorporated, told of the troubles of aerial navigation. Mr. MacMechen is the editor of the American Aeronaut of St. Louis.

Mr. MacMechen said:

I made the contract personally with Mr.
Farman, and while I was negotiating with a group of St. Louis businessmen to put the tour of the country through I was approached by Samuel Bowman, a real estate man of St. Louis. Mr. Bowman wanted to do business with me. He told me that he would interest his friends quickly. He got six men, most of them in the real estate business. Two of these backed out. Finally there remained Bowman, George W. Davis and W. F. Sauerbrunn, all of St. Louis.

These three are in real estate deals together. In fact, I believe that they have an option on the site of the old Evening Post building in New York, at Broadway and Fulton street. When the time came to send Farman $5,000 to hold him to the contract Sauerbrunn put up $3,000, Davis $1,000 and Bowman nothing. We were still $1,000 shy and had nothing for other expenses. We then went to William A.
Engeman, who owns the Brighton track, and he was willing to take a flyer in acroplanes and put up $5,000 more. That made $10,000 in all. My original plan called for $15,000. The Aeroplane Company of New York was incorporated here, with Bowman, president, Mr. Engeman treasurer and myself secretary.

Farman Had Guarantee.

Mr. Farman has a guarantee of ninety days in the country, for which he was to receive $24,600. In addition to this, he was to receive $300 extra for each day on which there was a flight. His expenses and those of his mechanics were to be paid. He got $5,000 before he came over and has been paid a week's salary of $1,680. There is due him a week's salary of $1,680, $800 for flights and $800 for expenses in bringing the machine from Paris. The gate receipts will, I think, settle all other outstanding bills. So Farman will be practically the sole creditor of the company.

Mr. MacMechen continued:

The syndicate had agreed to pay me half of the money I was to receive, but they didn't do that last week, so I shall have to pay my expenses myself. I am not individually liable to Mr. Farman for the balance of his contract, as the contract was assigned to the company, though as a stockholder I am liable. I do not know what the other stockholders in the company are going to do, but I do know that the problem of the finances was put up to them squarely some time ago, and they refused to put up any more money.

There is a possibility that Mr. Farman may sell his machine if the tour is not resumed. Joe Tracy, the automobile racer, and several other men have been talking of buying it.

ENGLISH EXPRESS REGRET.

Would Have Liked British Squadron to Meet Ours at Auckland.

London, Aug. 10.—Most of the London papers publish sympathetic editorials on the arrival of the American fleet at Auckland and regret that the British squadron is not there to welcome the visitors to Australian waters.
The comments may be broadly divided into two classes. In one case the admiralty is blamed for not having sent the squadron to the Pacific, where the question of supremacy will one day have to be fought out. In the other case the admiralty is excused on the ground of the necessity for concentrating the British naval strength in home waters in view of a more immediate struggle.

That comment of the latter kind is so numerous indicates how widespread is the fear of German aggression.

The panic monger, indeed, is rife in the land, and the latest evidence of him is the announcement in a widely circulated daily of a series of articles describing how the Germans are actually preparing at Emden for the invasion of England's coast similar to that of Napoleon at Boulogne on the very eve of the king's meeting with the kaiser at Crouberg.

RUNS 700 MILES IN 11 DAYS

Y. M. C. A. Secretary Takes Message From Toronto to New York.

New York, Aug. 10.—A thin young man whose freckled face and rust colored hair proclaimed him a native of the Land o' Cakes trotted from Broadway into City Hall park with perspiration streaming from his face and arms, while his running suit of shirt and pants was as moist as though he had been under a shower bath. A large crowd of men and boys followed him, and the young man drew a breath of relief as he ran up the steps of the city hall two steps at a time and escaped from public view through the doorway.

The young Scotchman was T. J. Mc-Auliffe, assistant secretary of the Y.
M. C. A., West End branch of Toronto, Canada, who left the city hall in Toronto at 11 o'clock on the morning of July 27, bearing a message from the mayor of that city to the mayor of New York. Omitting two Sundays, in which he would not run, he had covered the 700 miles from Toronto to New York, with seventy-two miles additional which he traveled as the result of mistakes as to the road, in 11 days and 22 hours.

MISS ETHEL IS SEVENTEEN.

This Time "Birth Party" Story Is Really True—Ask the President.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 10.—An announcement, official and correct, stamped with the affirmative seal of President Roosevelt, is made that Miss Ethel Roosevelt, his daughter, is seventeen years old. The anniversary was duly observed at Sagamore Hill.
Thrice this summer has the young woman, according to Mr. Loeb, had "birth parties" at Sagamore Hill and the reporters had already placed the much abused secretary in the Ananias club when they were amazed to hear from Secretary Foster, who has taken Mr. Loeb's place following the latter's departure on a vacation tour that Miss Ethel would have a birth day party.

When Mr. Foster made the announcement they arose as one man and told him he was a candidate for the club of which Mr. Loeb is an accredited member. Secretary Foster denied the imputation and with President Roosevelt's sanction posted a notice in the telegraph office which read as follows: "Miss Ethel Roosevelt will be seventeen years old on Aug. 10, 1908."

Wardwell's Wife Can't Go to Molokai.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Though virties of Arizona for the speedy deportation of the aged wife of General Wardwell, whom the disease has claimed for its victim.

N. Y. CHAIRMEN ARE CHOSEN.

Choate and Root to Preside at State Convention.

HANDS OFF HUGHES MATTER.

Woodruff States Position of the Organization and Says the Leaders Seek Sentiment of Rank and File of the Party—Declares There Is No Conspiracy to Prevent Nomination of Governor—Chairman Refuses to Give Opinion as to Situation at Present.

New York, Aug. 10.—Secretary of State Elihu Root and Joseph H.
Choate, former ambassador to the court of St. James, will preside over the Republican state convention which is to be held in Saratoga, probably on Sept. 14. This announcement was made by Chairman Timothy L.
Woodruff of the Republican state committee on his return to this city. Mr.
Woodruff said that it had not been decided whether Mr. Choate should be temporary chairman and Mr. Root permanent chairman, or vice versa. This will be settled at the meeting of the state committee on Wednesday. Both Mr. Choate and Mr. Root have consented, however, to serve in either capacity.

Chairman Woodruff declared that the Republican organization in the matter of Governor Hughes' candidacy for re-nomination would be guided by the sentiment of the rank and file of the Republican party.

Hands Off Hughes.

"The Republican organization is keeping its hands off, and the leaders are simply trying to find out what the sentiment of the rank and file of the party is," he said. "I do not know of a single leader, no matter what his personal views may be, who is not doing just that. There has been no change in the situation in spite of attempts in various quarters to make it appear that there has and that there is a conspiracy on the part of the state leaders to prevent the nomination of Hughes, no matter what the sentiment of the rank and file of the party may be."

No Change of Sentiment.

Mr. Woodruff took special pains to emphasize the point that this had been the attitude of the organization ever since Governor Hughes announced his willingness to run again and to impress the fact that nothing had occurred to change it in the slightest degree. When he was asked to say however, what, in his opinion, was the sentiment on the Hughes question at the present time Mr. Woodruff said that he would have to be excused.

Cannot Dissent that Now.

"Probably there will be no announcement to be made on that subject for some time to come, perhaps not until just before the meeting of the state convention. I have approached a great many people to ascertain just what their views were, and I think that I have obtained their real opinions regardless of what they may have thought my personal attitude to be.
But I want to wait until the situation has crystallized before expressing any opinion as to what is the desire of the party."

Expects Silence in Committee.

"Do you look for any action on the Hughes question at the meeting of the state committee on Wednesday?"
"I have not heard that any attempt to bring up the subject in the committee meeting is contemplated, and I do not believe that one will be made."

Mr. Woodruff said that the meeting of the committee would be held in the parlors of the Republican club on For-tenth street. The club is connected by a passage with the new state headquarters at 43 West Thirty-ninth street.
In addition to issuing the call for the state convention, the committee will select the temporary chairman.

In commenting on the selection of Mr. Choate and Mr. Root for the presiding officers of the convention Mr.
Woodruff said that the party was to be congratulated on having the services of two Republicans of more than national reputation, who are furthermore the two most eminent members of the bar in the country.

PILLSBURY FIRM LIBERAL.

Unwise Speculations and Long Credit Said to Be Back of Failure.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 10.—Unwise speculation in wheat and great liberality with the company's credits are declared to be back of the failure of the Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills company, which went into the hands of receivers. These charges of poor management are laid at the door of Henry L. Little, president and general manager of the big Pillsbury interests.

Since the failure of the company Mr.
Little has been inaccessible at his summer home at Lake Minnetonka, and his retirement from the firm is expected.

Recent heavy losses in the wheat market and $3,500,000 in outstanding bills which could not be immediately realized upon, together with pressing obligations from creditors, brought disaster to the company.

Under its receivership it is expected that the company's mills will continue to operate at full capacity and that its business will be pushed without hindrance. The retirement of Henry L.
Little is considered a certainty. The application for a receivership is taken to mean that Mr. Little will give way to the receivers in the conduct of the company's business.

PROHIBS' CANDIDATE IN TOO MUCH WATER

Chafin, Presidential Aspirant, Nearly Drowned in Pool.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 10.—Eugene W.
Chafin, prohibition candidate for president, narrowly escaped drowning while swimming in the Y. M. C. A. pool. Great effort was made to keep the incident quiet, and Mr. Chafin now

EUGENE W. CHAFIN.

refers to it as "groping about in the bottom of the pool." Three young men rescued him.

One of them, Maurice Hyland, vouches for the statement that Chafin was practically helpless after he sank in the deep part of the pool.

After being brought to the surface the prohibition candidate speedily recovered from the effects of too much water and was able to deliver a Chantanqua address.

Mr. Chafin was the guest of A. O.
Wolfenbarger, who placed him in nomination at the Columbus convention.

Fails to Swim English Channel.

Dover, England, Aug. 10.—In an attempt to swim the English channel James Mearns, the Scottish champion, nearly lost his life. Leaving the English coast, he approached within three miles of France after having been in the water for fourteen hours. Although he was advised to give up the effort, Mearns was persistent and injured until he became so exhausted that one of his attendants aboard a tug had to jump into the water fully dressed and support the swimmer until he could be rescued.
