A London View.

The Times, commenting on the Olympiad, says: "We have learned some useful lessons, especially that in speed and strength we are far behind the Americans, and that in field events our men were as children by the side of the American athletes, or, to put it differently, were as amateurs compared with professionals. Our men have not been taught so well; in many cases have not been taught at all, but they run and jump and throw the hammer simply by the light of nature. "Our haphazard methods of training served very well indeed so long as we had only each other to contend with. If we are to compete against the world, especially against such business-like athletes as the Americans, with any hope of improving, we must be business-like, too. Then the question arises as to whether it is worth while to make a business of sport. Probably it is not; so we shall not go far wrong in the case of true sport if we stick to our antiquated methods."

Went to Canada.

The authorities in Canada are taking great consolation and congratulation to themselves because they say that their records show a large number of emigrants from the United States are settling in their western country and becoming naturalized citizens. They say that the total number of naturalized Canadians since 1902 is 87,404, and that of these fully 40,000 came over from the States. That probably is true, but it does not indicate or even intimate that Americans are dissatisfied with their own country or its government or at all anxious to become Canadians. That is not the motive. There is a vast area of undeveloped agricultural lands in Western Canada and it appeals to a certain class of people.

There is always something attractive about buying land for 10 shillings or five dollars an acre and working it awhile and selling it for $50 an acre, and the selling is just as attractive and probably more so than any other part of the transaction. Having sold they move on to repeat the same experiment and experience.

Unionists Gain Another Seat.

London, Aug. 3.—At a bye-election Saturday at Shorehitch, Hagerston division, to fill the vacancy in the house of commons caused by the death last month of Sir W. Randall Cremer, Liberal, Hon. Robert Githens, Unionist, was returned by a majority of 1,113. In the last general election the Liberal majority in this division was 411.

VENEZUELA REPAIRING FORTS

Authorities Refused Communication to German Ambassador.

IN CHARGE OF DUTCH INTERESTS

Reason For M. Doreus' Dismissal.
Wrote a Letter to Society of Amsterdam Merchants Advising Young Hollanders Not to Come to Venezuela, as Under the Dictatorial Government Business Was Nearly Ruined in That Country.

Willemstad, Curacao, Aug. 3.—The Dutch cruiser Gelderland arrived here Sunday from La Guayra, Venezuela. Her commander declares that he sent a boat ashore at La Guayra with an officer and was refused all means of communication with the shore.

The authorities there, he said, declined to accept the letter bags and an official communication to the German ambassador, who is in charge of the Dutch interests in Curacao. He reports also that Venezuela is preparing her forts for a defense of the country.

It is generally believed here that Holland will take prompt and decisive action.

Why Doreus Was Dismissed.
Caracas, Friday, July 31, via Port of Spain, Aug. 3.—The differences between President Castro and the Dutch government will probably turn out to be less serious than they seemed at first. All talk of an armed conflict is regarded as absurd in this country. The government believes that it was right in its dismissal of M. Doreus, the Dutch minister, because Doreus wrote the letter which led to his dismissal with the deliberate purpose that it should be published.

There is a society in Amsterdam called the "Hou 'en Trouw" (Loyal and True). Its membership consists of prominent Dutch merchants and its object is to secure employment for young Hollanders in foreign countries. This society publishes a monthly bulletin for circulation among its members.

The society sends out letters asking for information to Dutch merchants and to the ministers and consuls of the Netherlands throughout the world. It was in response to one of these letters of inquiry that Doreus sent his letter which was published in the May, 1906, "Bulletin" of the society. It was dated at Caracas, April 9, and said in part:

"Referring to your letter of the 26th of February, I am sorry to inform you that the present time is anything but favorable for business. The system of government (since 1899) of the present almost dictatorial ruling president, which is economically for the creation and afterwards always for the annulment of monopolies, through all kinds of subtleties, has very nearly ruined the country.

"Revival of Trade Impossible."

"The revival of commercial trade is impossible as long as the present government rules the country, for it cannot be expected that the present president, after the nine years during which he has reigned, almost as a dictator, will change his system of governing and his domestic and foreign policy. Those who cannot succeed in acquiring a job in Venezuela through the influence of Hamburg firms, would do much better to try other Central or South American countries, where prosperity and progress is greater and the future brighter than in this republic."

The rumor that the Dutch armored ship Jacob Von Heemskerck has been dispatched to Venezuelan waters with hostile purposes is denied here, it being well known that the ship has been sent out in the ordinary way to relieve the Gelderland, the regular term of service of the latter vessel on this station being about to expire.

GETS DIVORCE ON CIGARETTES.

Judge Says the Habit Is Just as Bad as Drunkenness.

Bellefontaine, O., Aug. 3.—"The cigarette habit is sufficient cause for divorce in my court," said Judge John M. Broderick when a young wife testified that her husband was accustomed to get up in the night and smoke cigarettes.

"That is just as bad as the liquor habit, and habitual drunkenness is always cause for divorce," said the court.

Judge Broderick has been on the bench for two years and no pair that sought to have the marriage bond loosened has been turned away by him disappointed. The liberality of Judge Broderick in divorce cases is expressed by himself in the belief that failure of one party to a suit to appear is evidence of utter indifference and that it is then time for divorce.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed for ever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Halls Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
